PROCEEDING

Not on board. Taken on board.

2. We noticed news in English news paper in Hindustan Times dated 10.11.2022 on page 6 with title "Over 6,000 rape, acid attacks survivors await compensation". In the said report it is explained what is Manodhairya Scheme, the same is reproduced below:

High Court and a government decision of 2016. Under this scheme, survivors of rape, sexual exploitation, acid attack and immoral trafficking are given compensation, primarily to help them rebuild their lives. Its implementation is entrusted to the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA). It offers financial assistance of Rs. 1 Lakh and in special case Rs. 10 Lakh to the survivors. Based on the requirement, rehabilitation of the survivors and their dependants by way of shelter, counseling, medical and legal support, and education are also provided under the scheme. As soon as a case is registered, the victim has to be paid an interim compensation of Rs. 30,000 and the final compensation disbursed on the conclusion of the trial and conviction of the accused."

- 3. It is stated in the said news item that more than 4000 rape, sexual assault and immoral trafficking survivors, who are yet to receive monetary compensation under the said scheme. It is reported in the said mostly the delay is on the part of Police Authority. Not only that for compensation, victim requires Bank Account. In many cases for want of Aadhar Card and other documents it is not possible for the victim to open the Bank Account. It is stated in the said report that officer from the Rescue Foundation agreed that Bank Officers often refuse to open Accounts once apprised for the condition of said person. Not having a deadline for disbursal further leads officials to delay the process on one pretext or the other.
  - Considering these facts the following order is passed:
    - a) Office is directed to issue Summons to Principal Secretary Women and Child Development Department, Mantralaya, Mumbai and Commissioner of Police, Mumbai calling upon them to hold inquiry and file their affidavit in reply on or before 15.12.2022.
    - b) Matter to appear on board before Division Bench of Justice K.K. Tated and Shri. M. A. Sayeed, Member in Court No.1 on 15th December 2022 at 11.00 a.m.

ORDER

(Per: Shri. M. A. Sayeed; Hon'ble Member)

An alarming news article in English newspaper 'Hindustan Times' dated 10.11.2022 reported about the plight of over 6000 rape, acid attack survivors awaiting compensation despite passing of Manodhairya scheme which was introduced by Government way back in 2017 pursuant to direction by Bombay High Court. Under this scheme survivors of rape, sexual exploitation, acid attack and immoral trafficking were provided with monetary assistance with sole object of helping them in rebuild their lives and future and its implementation came to be entrusted to District Legal Aid Authorities.

Pursuant to the summons issued by this Commission, affidavit by 2. the respondents came to be placed on record vide Ex. 'A' & 'B'. Pertinent to note that respondent no. 2 - Commissioner of Police, Mumbai in his affidavit Ex. 'B' vide para 2 to 7 affirmed about a proper scheme for payment of compensation to the aforesaid category of victims under the aforesaid project – Manodhairya. The said paras reads thus:

- "2. With reference to the contentions made in paragraph no. 2 of t aforementioned proceeding, news in English newspaper in Hindust Times dated 10/11/2022 on page no. 6 with title "Over 6,000 rape, ac attacks survivors await compensation and the said report is explair what is Manodhariya Scheme and the same is reproduced as it introduced in 2017 based on a direction by Hon. Bombay High C and a government decision of 2016 and under the said sche survivors of rape, sexual exploitation, acid attack and imm trafficking are given compensation, primarily to help them rebuild lives are true and correct.
- 3. It is also stated in paragraph no. 2 of the foregoing proceeding th implementation of the aforementioned scheme is entrusted t District Legal Service Authority (DLSA) and it offers fin assistance of Rs. 1 Lakh and in special cases upto Rs.10 Lakh survivors and based on the requirement, réhabilitation of the sun and their dependents by way of shelter, counseling, medical an support and education are also provided under the scheme and as case is registered the victim has to be paid an interim comp of Rs. 30,000 and the final compensation disbursed on the cor of the trial and conviction of the accused is true and correct.
- 4. With reference to the contentions made in paragraph no. aforementioned proceeding, more than 4000 rape, sexual ass immoral trafficking survivors are yet to receive monetary com under the aforementioned scheme and it is reported in the that mostly the delay is on the part of Police Authority is not factually correct.
- 5. Whereas section 5 of the NALSA's Compensation Scheme for Women Victims/Survivors of Sexual Assault/Other Crimes 2018 mandates Police to share a soft or hard copy of the FIR with the State Legal Services Authority or District Legal Services Authority as soon as it is registered regarding the commission of an offence covered by the said Scheme, the SLSA or DLSA may also suo moto begin preliminary verification of facts for the purpose of awarding compensation in deserving cases.
- 6. That, in accordance with sections 6(a) to 6(c) of the Manodharya Victim Compensation Scheme Guidelines for District Legal Services Authority, it mandatory on the Police to forward the FIR/Complaint to District Board. The Application for Award of interim/final compensation can be filed by the Victim and/or he Dependents or the SHO of the area before concerned SLSA o DLSA in FORM I along with copy of First Information Report c Criminal Complaint of which cognizance is taken by the Court and available Medical Report, Death Certificate and copy of judgment court if trial is over.

7. In addition to this, Form-I only contains information about t Applicant or victim, such as name, age, address, date of the incider whether a police report was filed, and the status of any pending leg proceedings, among other things. The pertinent provisions of Section of the Manodharya Victim Compensation Scheme Guidelines f District Legal Services Authority are reproduced as follows:

(a) That as soon an incident of rape is reported and registered the PSO/SHO of the concerned police station through the SP/DCP shall forward as provided in the Scheme the copy of the FIR/Complaint, medical report, and the preliminary investigation report of the IO to the Secretary of the District Board

(b)(1) A victim, or his legal heir or any person/voluntary N.G.O. espousing the cause of women/Commissions may also apply to the District Board for financial relief and rehabilitation in accordance with the provisions of the Scheme within 60 days.

Provided that in cases where the Application is made after 60 days, the Board may, after being satisfied with the reasons for the delay given in writing, condone the delay.

(2) Where the Applicant is

i. A child, the Applicant may be made on his/her behalf by a parent, Guardian, by any voluntary N.G.O commissions.

ii. A mentally ill person within the meaning of the Mental Health Act or a mentally retarded person, the Application may be made by the person with whom the Applicant normally resides or a duly authorized medical officer or a voluntary N.G.O.

- (c) The Application under clause (b) shall be submitted in the prescribed proforma (Annexure 1) and shall include the copy of the FIR/Complaint, Medical report, death certificate appropriate cases or complaint made to the court in cases where police have not registered the FIR, indicating reasons for non-registration of the FIR, Newspaper reports, if any."
- 3. It is further affirmed that the implementation of the scheme is in accordance with the scheme framed by NALSA compensation scheme for women victims/survivors of sexual assault/other survivors of 2018. Admittedly a government resolution no. MISC/2011/QNo.6/KA-2 issued by Department of Women and Child Development.

It is further affirmed that for efficacious implementation of the scheme, Mumbai police has ensured that FIRs are provided to SLSA/DLSA at the earliest.

4. Thus, with appropriate scheme in its place which is being duly implemented through the law enforcing agency and supervised by the State and District Legal Services Authority, we are of the opinion that further intervention by us is not warranted, Accordingly following order:
